3.07 Billie Faircloth
Crafting Impact
Partner, KieranTimberlake
Portman Prize Studio Critic Lecture
Reinsch-Pierce Family Auditorium
3:30pm

3.14 Brian Bell & David Yocum
New & Improved!
Professors of Practice, School of Architectural Planning, BLDGS
Atlanta Practice Lecture
Reinsch-Pierce Family Auditorium
3:30pm

3.29 Marion Weiss & Michael Manfredi
Drifting Symmetries
Co-Founders, WEISS/ MANFREDI
Design Atlanta Lecture in Collaboration with MODA
Pilt Theatre at the Woodruff Arts Center
7:00pm

5.09 Ingrid Rowland
Is Vitruvius Still the Man?
Professor, School of Architecture, University of Notre Dame
Academy of Medicine Lecture
Academy of Medicine
6:00pm

2.07 - 2.28 Ventulett Chair Candidate Lecture Series
The Thomas W. Ventulett III Distinguished Chair in Architectural Design is intended to engage an exceptional practitioner with a record of international achievement, who will be a model of excellence for students in the School and to develop significant initiatives to enhance the critical importance of design in the architecture, engineering, and construction industry.
This lecture series will feature Ventulett Chair candidates. More information about each lecture to come.

2.07 - 2.28 Ventulett NEXT Fellow Candidate Lecture Series
The Ventulett NEXT Visiting Fellow is in a new initiative in the School of Architecture intended to attract mid-career architects and senior researchers who are interested in practicing architecture and research that engages design, technology, and culture.
The lecture series will feature Ventulett NEXT Fellows. More information about each lecture to come.

1.22 - 3.09 Necessary Tomorrows: Afrofuturism & Design
Curated by: Mark Cottle
School of Architecture
Stubbins and Cohen Galleries

2.08 - 3.02 ULI Hines
Competition Entries
Curated by: Ellen Gobat-Jones
School of Architecture
Cohen Gallery

1.22 - 3.09 Billie Faircloth: Portman Prize Studio Critic
Curated by: Sabir Khan
School of Architecture
Cohen Gallery

3.14 - 4.21 Mark Boggio & Merrill Elam: Mexicantown, A Liminal Blur
Curated by: Mark Boggio and Merrill Elam
School of Architecture
Cohen Gallery

3.30 - 4.18 Maintenance & Repair in Architecture & Design
Curated by: Sabir Khan
School of Architecture
Cohen Gallery

4.23 - 4.30 Ph.D. Research in the College of Design
Curated by: Thanos Economou
School of Architecture
Stubbins Gallery

4.27 School of Architecture: End of the Year Student Show
Curated by: Students in the School of Architecture
Hinman Building

5.03 - 8.24 School of Industrial Design Launchpad
Curated by: Joyce Medina
School of Industrial Design
Stubbins Gallery

3.30 Disrepair, Repair & Maintenance Symposium
How do designers, maintainers, and repair figures negotiate mediated and material systems? Symposium from a year-long research initiative -- Andrew Russell and Lee Vinsel (Science and Technology Studies); Juliet Davis (Urban Geography); Lynnette Widder (Architecture and Environment); Kate Irvin (Textiles), among others -- will explore repair, maintenance, and breakdown from diverse disciplinary vantage points.
Organized by Sabir Khan
Architecture Library, College of Design
10:00am - 5:00pm

2.07 - 2.28 ConCAVE 20x20
Ph.D. candidates from across the College of Design, Architecture, Engineering, and Ecology are once again joining together for a night of 20x20 PechaKucha-style presentations. "Pecha Kucha" is a method of quickly presenting ideas using 20 slides that are set to 20 seconds each.
Organized by the School of Architecture Ph.D. program, Georgia Tech
3.30 - 4.30

4.27 School of Architecture: End of the Year Student Show
Curated by: Students in the School of Architecture
Hinman Building

5.03 - 8.24 School of Industrial Design Launchpad
Curated by: Joyce Medina
School of Industrial Design
Stubbins Gallery

3.13 ConCAVE 20x20
Ph.D. candidates from across the College of Design, Architecture, Engineering, and Ecology are once again joining together for a night of 20x20 PechaKucha-style presentations. "Pecha Kucha" is a method of quickly presenting ideas using 20 slides that are set to 20 seconds each.
Organized by the School of Architecture Ph.D. program, Georgia Tech
Ph.D. program, Georgia Tech
4.23 - 4.30

5.03 - 8.24 School of Industrial Design Launchpad
Curated by: Joyce Medina
School of Industrial Design
Stubbins Gallery

3.30 Maintenance & Repair in Architecture & Design
Curated by: Sabir Khan
School of Architecture
Cohen Gallery

3.30 Disrepair, Repair & Maintenance Symposium
How do designers, maintainers, and repair figures negotiate mediated and material systems? Symposium from a year-long research initiative -- Andrew Russell and Lee Vinsel (Science and Technology Studies); Juliet Davis (Urban Geography); Lynnette Widder (Architecture and Environment); Kate Irvin (Textiles), among others -- will explore repair, maintenance, and breakdown from diverse disciplinary vantage points.
Organized by Sabir Khan
Architecture Library, College of Design
10:00am - 5:00pm

4.27 School of Architecture: End of the Year Student Show
Curated by: Students in the School of Architecture
Hinman Building

5.03 - 8.24 School of Industrial Design Launchpad
Curated by: Joyce Medina
School of Industrial Design
Stubbins Gallery

2.07 - 2.28 Ventulett Chair Candidate Lecture Series
The Thomas W. Ventulett III Distinguished Chair in Architectural Design is intended to engage an exceptional practitioner with a record of international achievement, who will be a model of excellence for students in the School and to develop significant initiatives to enhance the critical importance of design in the architecture, engineering, and construction industry.
This lecture series will feature Ventulett Chair candidates. More information about each lecture to come.

2.07 - 2.28 Ventulett NEXT Fellow Candidate Lecture Series
The Ventulett NEXT Visiting Fellow is in a new initiative in the School of Architecture intended to attract mid-career architects and senior researchers who are interested in practicing architecture and research that engages design, technology, and culture.
The lecture series will feature Ventulett NEXT Fellows. More information about each lecture to come.

3.13 ConCAVE 20x20
Ph.D. candidates from across the College of Design, Architecture, Engineering, and Ecology are once again joining together for a night of 20x20 PechaKucha-style presentations. "Pecha Kucha" is a method of quickly presenting ideas using 20 slides that are set to 20 seconds each.
Organized by the School of Architecture Ph.D. program, Georgia Tech
4.23 - 4.30

5.03 - 8.24 School of Industrial Design Launchpad
Curated by: Joyce Medina
School of Industrial Design
Stubbins Gallery

3.30 Disrepair, Repair & Maintenance Symposium
How do designers, maintainers, and repair figures negotiate mediated and material systems? Symposium from a year-long research initiative -- Andrew Russell and Lee Vinsel (Science and Technology Studies); Juliet Davis (Urban Geography); Lynnette Widder (Architecture and Environment); Kate Irvin (Textiles), among others -- will explore repair, maintenance, and breakdown from diverse disciplinary vantage points.
Organized by Sabir Khan
Architecture Library, College of Design
10:00am - 5:00pm

The lecture series will feature Ventulett Chair candidates. More information about each lecture to come.

The Thomas W. Ventulett III Distinguished Chair in Architectural Design is intended to engage an exceptional practitioner with a record of international achievement, who will be a model of excellence for students in the School and to develop significant initiatives to enhance the critical importance of design in the architecture, engineering, and construction industry.
This lecture series will feature Ventulett Chair candidates. More information about each lecture to come.

The lecture series will feature Ventulett NEXT Fellows. More information about each lecture to come.

The Thomas W. Ventulett III Distinguished Chair in Architectural Design is intended to engage an exceptional practitioner with a record of international achievement, who will be a model of excellence for students in the School and to develop significant initiatives to enhance the critical importance of design in the architecture, engineering, and construction industry.
This lecture series will feature Ventulett Chair candidates. More information about each lecture to come.

The Thomas W. Ventulett III Distinguished Chair in Architectural Design is intended to engage an exceptional practitioner with a record of international achievement, who will be a model of excellence for students in the School and to develop significant initiatives to enhance the critical importance of design in the architecture, engineering, and construction industry.
This lecture series will feature Ventulett Chair candidates. More information about each lecture to come.